Your employer

The Department of Education, Training and Employment (DETE) is committed to ensuring Queenslanders have the education and skills they need to contribute to the economic and social development of Queensland. The department delivers world-class education and training services for people at every stage of their personal and professional development. We are also committed to ensuring our education and training systems are aligned to the state's employment, skills and economic priorities. DETE is a diverse organisation with the largest workforce in the state. We provide services through four broad service delivery areas:

- Education Queensland Division delivers high quality education to more than 70 percent of all Queensland school students at prep, primary and secondary levels.
- Skills Reform, Training and Employment Division works to meet the current and future needs of industry through building a world class training and skilling system to enhance the skills of Queenslanders and optimise employment opportunities through the regulation of the state’s apprenticeship and traineeship system, strategic investment in training and skills, and the provision of whole of government leadership on employment and labour market issues.
- Policy and Programs Division leads early childhood development, and education, tertiary education and training and Indigenous policy, regulates the provision of childcare services and Home Education, supports the Australian Music Examinations Board and the Non-State School Accreditation Board, and provides grants to childcare service providers and non-state schooling sectors.
- TAFE Queensland Division is the largest provider of practical, relevant and quality vocational education and training in Queensland. The TAFE system supports the development of a highly skilled and flexible workforce to ensure Queensland's continuing growth and prosperity.

Education Queensland is responsible for ensuring that every day, in every lesson, every student in state schooling is learning and achieving within a safe, supportive, inclusive and disciplined learning environment and supported by strong governance and efficient business operations. Education Queensland provides support for high quality projects and processes to support schools to be united in their pursuit of excellence.
Education Queensland develops the strategic direction for state schools, supported by policies ensuring that there is alignment between these and the implementation in regions and schools. Education Queensland facilitates principal and teacher capability development through the development of resources, delivering professional development and setting standards through teaching and learning audits.

Schools are the focus of expertise in learning. They perform a vital role in providing opportunities to students to acquire knowledge and understanding, pursue special interests, strive to achieve excellence and develop social and vocational skills. Their core business is providing a learning program for students to achieve system wide and school based learning outcomes. Schools also aim to facilitate and support participation among parents, students, administrators, teachers and others in the school community and between the school and departmental support structures.

For more information about the department, please visit our website at www.dete.qld.gov.au

Your opportunity
As the Teacher Aide you will contribute to the provision of a quality educational service by assisting and supporting teachers with the preparation/enhancement of learning materials and associated activities.

The Teacher Aide reports to the Principal or nominated delegate as appropriate. The reporting relationship to teachers may be changed by the Principal on a regular basis to fulfil specific needs within the school. When supporting students with specific health procedures, a Teacher Aide will be under the direct or indirect supervision of a registered nurse or medical practitioner.

Your role
THE DUTIES OF A TEACHER AIDE MAY INCLUDE A MIX OF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ACTIVITIES:
These activities are not exhaustive, however, and other relevant activities may be performed by teacher aides provided that such duties are appropriate having due regard to the nature, classification level and purpose of the position.

You will have responsibility for leading the following activities and delivery of the following key tasks:

• Assisting teachers and students with sporting activities and with school excursions.
• Assisting with the management and stocktaking of equipment and resources.
• Communicating effectively and displaying high level of interpersonal skills to function as an effective team member.
• Maintaining anecdotal records on students for use in reviewing student’s development.
• Displaying respect and empathy for students with high level needs.
• Displaying confidentiality, tact, reliability and sensitively to students and their families.
• The compiling and supervising of class rolls.
• Clerical assistance duties including typing teachers' notes and work programs, duplicating/photocopying teaching materials, checking bus lists, collation and duplication of exam papers, recording of examination results, compiling students results records, assisting in organising off-site activities.
• Assisting in the supervision of education activities, under the direction of a teacher.
• Assisting in preparing, storing, making available and clearing away teaching equipment and materials.
• Assisting teaching staff with playground/bus supervision.
• Collecting money from students for various school activities as required.
• Contributing to the welfare, health and safety of students including the delivery of first aid. Where the teacher aide is required to administer first aid, the teacher aide would be required to be formally trained in the administration of first aid, and keep such qualifications current. All costs associated with obtaining and maintaining qualifications would be met from school funds.
• Assist students with special needs, this may in certain circumstances extend to moving disabled pupils, assisting with positioning, assisting with meals, toileting and dressing of pupils unable to care for themselves. Suitable training is essential.

• Listening to students’ reading.

• Reading aloud and storytelling.

• Assisting with science demonstrations, textile and cooking classes, for example, collation of food lists, purchasing, preparation and storage of materials.

• Laundering linens.

• Care of equipment.

• Assisting students to find reference materials.

• Specific Literacy and Numeracy duties may include:
  o support for teachers in providing learning materials for students at risk
  o working with small groups as well as individual students
  o use of computers when working with students.

How you will be assessed
Within the context of the role described above, the ideal applicant will be someone who has the following key capabilities:

1. Supports strategic direction
   Knowledge of or ability to learn quickly about classroom activities and procedures, use and maintenance of resources and school policies.

2. Achieves results
   Willingness to undertake specific training to enhance student support as necessary.

3. Supports productive working relationships
   Basic understanding of occupational health and safety, equal employment opportunity and anti-discriminatory practices and behaviour as applied in a work environment.

4. Displays personal drive and integrity
   Knowledge, skills and ability to work as a teacher aide in a responsible way.

5. Communicates with influence
   Demonstrated sound personal qualities of tact, reliability and an ability to work with others both individually and as a member of a team.

Additional information
• The Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act 2000 requires the preferred applicant to be subject to a working with children check as part of the employment screening process. The department is legally obliged to warn applicants that it is an offence for a disqualified person to sign a blue card application form. Further details regarding this check may be obtained by accessing the web site of the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian at the following internet address: www.ccypcg.qld.gov.au/ or on the Commission’s website at: www.bluecard.qld.gov.au/

• Confirmation of employment is conditional upon the preferred applicant being issued with a Blue Card from the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian.

• Where schools require the person performing these duties, to possess a Senior First Aide Certificate and the recommended applicant does not currently hold this certification, the school will fund the cost of obtaining the certificate and subsequent updates.
• TAOO2 Teacher Aide permanent positions are eligible to progress to classification TAOO3 by fulfilling eligibility criteria. Refer to the TAOO3 Teacher Aide (Generic) role description for eligibility criteria.
• A criminal history check may be initiated on the successful applicant by the Queensland Police Service.
• A serious discipline history check may be initiated on the successful applicant.
• A non-smoking policy applies in Queensland government buildings, offices and motor vehicles.
• If the successful applicant has been engaged as a lobbyist, a statement of their employment is required.
• You may be required to complete a period of probation in accordance with the Public Service Act 2008.
• Staff are required to actively participate in consultation and communication with supervisors and management regarding health, safety and wellbeing issues and comply with all provisions of the relevant workplace health and safety legislation and related health, safety and wellbeing responsibilities and procedures developed by the department.
• You will work for an organisation that values its people and promotes leadership and innovation. We respect professionalism, embrace diversity and encourage a balance between work and life commitments.
• Departmental employees are required to acknowledge they understand their obligations under the Queensland Government Code of Conduct and the department’s Standard of Practice and agree to align their professional conduct to these obligations.
• All roles in the department are responsible for creating, collecting, maintaining, using, disclosing, duplicating and disposing of information, as well as managing and using communication devices (for example email, internet and telephone) and public resources (for example computers and network resources). Staff must undertake these tasks in accordance with the department's information management policies and procedures (for example recordkeeping, privacy, security and email usage).
• You will be actively supported as an individual and will have access to a range of flexible work options, an employee assistance program and learning and development opportunities.
• All role descriptions and recruitment and selection processes are required to be aligned with the Queensland Government Capability and Leadership Framework (CLF). For more information about the CLF, visit www.psc.qld.gov.au
• Additional information is available online at: www.smartjobs.qld.gov.au